ABOUT

TECE was founded in 1955 and its roots lie in practice: The corporate group originated from an engineering office – and the typical engineering culture of asking questions has continued in the company today: "Can this be made better, faster, easier – more attractive"? TECE is a mid-size, owner-managed company characterized by the people involved. The corporate culture is one of long-term, controlled growth – with a philosophy of closeness to the customer.

TECE manufactures a broad range of engineering solutions including the following: Drainline (linear shower drains), Drainline S (centre drains), TECE pre-wall products (flushing technology & actuation plates) and TECE drainage and separation technology. And because we know that practice is the best product developer, we regularly involve our customers in the development of new products.
